The Hamas terror attack had dramatic consequences for people in Israel, the Gaza Strip and around the world. Here, we hear individual stories from people living in Tel Aviv. What were their lives like before 7 October 2023? What's their current perception of the war? What do they see, when they look to the future?

In the summer of 2023, Tel Aviv was a lively, liberal and open metropolis, known as the "Mediterranean Capital of Cool". Then came October 7, and changed everything. Here, people's lives are forever divided: into 'before', and 'after'. Club owners, culture workers, restaurateurs, LGBTQ activists and architects share very personal insights into a traumatized society. And they've not given up hope for better times once the war is over.
