GERMAN NEWS SERVICE

Benefit from smart content made in Germany

The German News Service is a free news wire from Deutsche Welle (DW) and Deutsche Presse-Agentur (dpa) that lets you integrate the latest news reports covering German issues directly into your website.

Choose from text, photo and video content from DW in English, German, Spanish, French, Arabic and Russian covering a broad spectrum of German topics, ranging from politics, business and science to lifestyle and culture.

You also have access to a news portal with agency material from dpa – one of the world's largest news agencies. You can edit and publish this premium content on your website or use it for radio, print, television and social media channels.
